Certificate II in Kitchen Operations

This VET Program is designed for students wishing to enter the hospitality and food service industries. Pathways into further study or employment are available through completion of this Program.

COURSE AIMS

Students will develop skills and knowledge in several areas including preparing a variety of meals and food products, cookery skills, participating in safe work practices, working effectively with others and using food preparation tools and equipment.

CONTRIBUTION TO VCAL/VCE

VCAL: One credit towards a VCAL learning program is awarded on successful completion of 90 nominal hours of accredited VET curriculum.

VCE: Students who complete this Program may be eligible for recognition of two or more units at units 1 & 2 level and a units 3 & 4 sequence.

ATAR: Students wishing to receive an ATAR contribution for the Units 3 and 4 sequence must undertake scored assessment for the purposes of gaining a study score. This study score can contribute directly to the primary four or as a fifth or sixth study. Where a student elects not to receive a study score for VCE VET Hospitality, no contribution to the ATAR will be available.

Please note: The student must already have English and three other fully scored VCE/VET subjects to create the primary four.
